

AmTrust Risk Solutions Brand Launched to Reflect Broad Specialty Risk Offering

New name and branding underscores AmTrust's continued commitment to delivering innovative, reliable risk solutions in an evolving marketplace

New York, NY – February 25, 2026 – AmTrust Financial Services, Inc. (“AmTrust” or the “Company”), a global specialty property casualty insurer, today launched AmTrust Risk Solutions, a new brand identity for AmTrust’s business unit formerly known as AmTrust Warranty & Specialty Risk. The launch of AmTrust Risk Solutions now reflects the robust and agile suite of specialized risk offerings and capabilities AmTrust has strategically established over the past several years as the marketplace and client needs have evolved.

AmTrust Risk Solutions will focus on a range of innovative offerings, including credit, structured solutions, surety, legal protection, travel, event ticket, renters insurance, and a variety of niche specialty programs. It will also continue to offer warranty and service contracts.

"The launch of AmTrust Risk Solutions now aligns our brand with our distinctive hands-on approach and the valued expertise we provide every day to support our partners with tailored programs, operational scale and flexibility to help them confidently navigate risk," said Jeff Fenster, Head of North American Specialty Risk. "As our product portfolio and partner base have evolved, this newly launched brand better embodies the existing capabilities we've already put in place as we continually focus on delivering high-quality solutions to best support the growing needs of our partners and clients. What hasn't changed is our commitment to performance, superior service and remaining highly accessible to our partners, for which we're well known."

The AmTrust Risk Solutions brand launch features a new look across communications, materials and digital platforms, including a newly updated website designed with cleaner, crisper aesthetics and customized imagery to better represent the highly collaborative team and people-driven approach that distinguishes this specialized AmTrust business unit in the marketplace.
