A Company’s certificate of incorporation, charter or other organization documents, including by-laws and resolutions, shall be deemed to require indemnification and advancement to an Individual Insured to the fullest extent permitted by law.

E. In the event a Company is unable to pay the applicable Retention due to Financial Insolvency, then the Insurer shall advance payment for Loss within the applicable Retention. The Insurer shall be entitled to recover the amount of Loss advanced within the Retention from such Company pursuant to Section X. Subrogation of the General Terms and Conditions.

VI. Defense Costs, Defense Counsel, Settlements & Judgments

A. Defense
The Insurer does not assume any duty to defend a Claim. The Insureds shall defend and contest any Claim made against them. An Insured shall not retain defense counsel or incur any Defense Costs without the prior written consent of the Insurer, such consent not to be unreasonably withheld. With the express prior written consent of the Insurer, an Insured may select defense counsel different from that selected by other Insureds if such selection is required due to an actual conflict of interest.

B. Advancement
The Insurer shall advance Defense Costs in excess of the applicable Retention on behalf of the Insured prior to final disposition of the Claim. Such advanced payments by the Insurer shall be repaid to the Insurer by each and every Insured, severally according to their respective interests, in the event and to the extent that any such Insured shall not be entitled under the Terms and Conditions of this Coverage Element to payment of such Loss.

C. General Provisions
The Insurer shall have the right to associate fully and effectively with each and every Insured in the defense of any Claim that appears reasonably likely to involve the Insurer, including, but not limited to, negotiating a settlement. Each and every Insured agrees to provide such information as the Insurer may reasonably require and to give the Insurer full cooperation and take such actions which, in such Insurer’s judgment, are deemed necessary and practicable to prevent or limit Loss arising from any Wrongful Act.

D. Settlement
The Insured shall not admit or assume any liability, enter into any settlement agreement, stipulate to any judgment, incur any Defense Costs, Adverse Media Event Loss or Investigation Costs, or retain a risk management, public relations or law firm, without the prior written consent of the Insurer. If the Insured admits or assumes any liability in connection with any Claim without the consent of the Insurer, then the Insurer shall not have any obligation to pay Loss with respect to such Claim. Only those settlements, stipulated judgments, Defense Costs, Adverse Media Event Loss and Investigation Costs which have been consented to by the Insurer shall be recoverable as Loss under the terms of this Coverage Element. The Insurer shall not unreasonably withhold any consent required under this Coverage Element, provided that in all events the Insurer may withhold consent to any settlement, stipulated judgment or Defense Costs, or any portion thereof, to the extent such Claim (or any portion thereof) is not covered under the terms of this Coverage Element. In addition, the Insured shall not take any action which prejudices the Insurer’s rights under this Coverage Element.
VII. Other Insurance

Such insurance as is provided by this Coverage Element shall apply only as excess over any other valid and collectible insurance, unless such other insurance is expressly written to be excess over any applicable Limit of Liability for this policy or any Coverage Element. This policy specifically shall be excess of any other policy pursuant to which any other insurer has a duty to defend a Claim for which this policy may be obligated to pay Loss. For any Claim involving an Outside Entity Executive, this policy specifically shall be excess of any indemnification by the Outside Entity and any insurance coverage afforded to any such Outside Entity Executive or Outside Entity.

VIII. Allocation

If both Loss covered under this Coverage Element and loss not covered under this Coverage Element are incurred by the Insureds on account of any Claim because such Claim against the Insureds includes both covered and non-covered matters, then coverage under this Coverage Element with respect to such Claim shall be allocated by the Insurer pro rata between covered and non-covered matters and, in the event of a settlement in such Claim, based on the number of covered and non-covered counts, causes of action or allegations against the Insureds.

If the Insureds and the Insurer cannot agree on an allocation of covered Loss and non-covered loss:
1. no presumption as to allocation shall exist in any arbitration, suit or other proceeding; and
2. the Insurer, if requested by the Insureds, shall submit the dispute to binding arbitration. The rules of the American Arbitration Association shall apply except with respect to the selection of the arbitration panel, which shall consist of one arbitrator selected by the Insureds, one arbitrator selected by the Insurer, and a third independent arbitrator selected by the first two arbitrators.

IX. Coverage under Coverage D and Coverage E

It is the duty of the Company and not the duty of the Insurer to respond to, investigate or otherwise evaluate any Adverse Media Event or Derivative Demand. The Insurer shall be entitled to associate effectively with the Company in its response, investigation, evaluation, negotiation or settlement of any such Adverse Media Event or Derivative Demand. The Company shall be entitled to payment:

A. under Coverage D of this Coverage Element for Adverse Media Event Loss no greater than 90 days after receiving written consent of the Insurer; and

B. under Coverage E of this Coverage Element for Investigation Costs not greater than 90 days after the Company has made its final decision not to bring a civil proceeding in a court of law against any of its Executives, and such decision has been communicated to the security holders who made the demand upon the Company. However, such payment shall be subject to an undertaking by the Company, in a form acceptable to the Insurer, that the Company shall return such payment in the event any Company or any security holder of the Company brings a Claim alleging, arising out of, based upon or attributable to any Wrongful Acts which were the subject of the Derivative Demand.

Nothing in this Coverage Element, including Coverage E, shall be construed to afford coverage for any Claim brought by the Company against one or more of its own Executives, other than Investigation Costs incurred in a covered Derivative Demand or as otherwise provided under Section III.F. of this Coverage Element.

X. Order of Payments

In the event of Loss for which payment is due under the provisions of this Coverage Element but which Loss, in the aggregate, exceeds the remaining available Limits of Liability applicable to this Coverage Element (including by virtue of the depletion of the Policy Aggregate Limit of Liability), then the Insurer shall:

A. first pay such Loss for which coverage is provided under Coverage A of this Coverage Element;

B. then pay such other Loss for which coverage is provided under this policy.

Upon the written request of the Named Insured, the Insurer shall either pay or withhold payment for such other Loss otherwise payable under Coverages B, C, D or E. In the event that the Insurer withholds payment as requested by the Named Insured, then the Insurer shall at any time in the future, at the request of the Named Insured, release such Loss payment to a Company, or make such Loss payment directly to the Individual Insured in the event of any Claim under Coverage A of this Coverage Element. The Insurer’s liability with respect to any payments of Loss withheld shall not be increased, and shall not include any interest, as a result of such withholding.

The Financial Insolvency of any Company or any Individual Insured shall not relieve the Insurer of any of its obligations to prioritize payment of covered Loss under this Coverage Element pursuant to this Section X.
