

James W. Tarlton, Esq. Joins AmTrust Title as Southeast Regional Counsel

New York, June 18, 2022 – AmTrust Title Insurance Company today announced that James W. Tarlton, JD has joined the company as Regional Underwriting Counsel with a focus on real estate markets in the Southeast.

"Jim is a veteran attorney who has a rich career both as a law firm partner and the founder and principal of his own law firms practicing residential and commercial real estate law," said Jason Gordon, President of AmTrust Title. "His decades of experience in title closings as both a title agent and lawyer with admission to three state bars will be invaluable to AmTrust and we are delighted he is joining us."

Tarlton was most recently the owner of Main Street Title Group, LLC, Celebration, FL, where he oversaw operations, including underwriting files, and handled title examination and title curative for national real estate clients focusing on multistate closings. As part of his practice, he formed his own title closing company Insight Title & Escrow LLC to act as both settlement agent and title agent.

Before forming his own firm, Tarlton was a successful real estate attorney practicing for the last 25 years with London & Thurber, LLC and, and other law firms in the Southeast market, including leadership roles focused on real estate transactional and estate planning law practice that represented builders, lenders and mortgage brokers in residential and commercial closings, as well as provided estate planning and probate services.

"AmTrust is a respected name in the Southeast and South, and I am pleased to be joining a firm where my decades of experience in title closings, financing, underwriting, taxation and other related facets of commercial and residential law will now be part of a large, successful national team," said James Tarlton.

Tarlton holds an AB from Duke University, a JD from the University of Alabama School of Law, and an LLM degree in taxation from the New York University School of Law. He is admitted to the bar in Alabama, Florida and Georgia.
