A.M. Best Assigns “A-” (Excellent) Rating and Stable Outlook to Insurance Subsidiaries of AmTrust

Last year, A.M. Best put AmTrust’s “A” (Excellent) Financial Strength Rating temporarily under review, with negative implications. Since then, we have taken significant steps to increase the strength of our balance sheet. A.M. Best has since removed AmTrust from under review and given our insurance subsidiaries a Rating of “A-” (Excellent), with a Stable outlook.

AmTrust is well-capitalized, stable, and positioned to support you and your business for the long term.

In its press release, A.M. Best noted AmTrust’s balance sheet strength, which A.M. Best categorizes as very strong, as well as AmTrust’s high-quality capital profile. Our risk-adjusted capitalization, as measured by Best’s Capital Adequacy Ratio (BCAR), strengthened materially through the first half of 2018.

AmTrust’s balance sheet has never been stronger. At the end of the first quarter of 2018, AmTrust reported record total assets of $25.7 billion and approximately $3.8 billion in equity. Adjusted for the benefit of the adverse development cover (ADC) we purchased last year, our adjusted equity is more than $4 billion. Thanks to initiatives we undertook in 2017 and 2018, we have established the strongest capital base in our 20-year history.

With the completion of A.M. Best’s review, an “A-” (Excellent) rating with a Stable outlook, and a strong capital base, you can be confident in AmTrust’s ability to support you and your policyholders.

AmTrust moves up the Fortune 500 list

In June 2017, AmTrust Financial joined a select group of companies on Fortune magazine’s prestigious Fortune 500 list.

First published in 1955, the Fortune 500 is a who’s who of American businesses. Collectively, Fortune 500 companies represent two-thirds of the U.S. gross domestic product with $12.8 trillion in revenues.

We are pleased to announce that AmTrust has not only remained on the list, but has moved up from 475 to 469. Earning a spot on the Fortune 500 is the result of an innovative vision, years of hard work and a relentless drive to be the best property and casualty insurer in the world.

AmTrust named a top workplace by Insurance Business America

Insurance Business America (IBA) has recognized AmTrust Financial Services as a top workplace for the insurance industry for 2018. IBA is a bi-monthly magazine that covers insurance industry news as well as the achievements of key individuals and businesses.

In order to be eligible to be recognized as one of their Top Insurance Workplaces, an employer first nominates themselves to be considered. Then, employees complete an anonymous survey that evaluates the company on a variety of metrics, such as compensation, benefits, and work culture, among others. After the results are calculated, employers who achieve an 80 percent or better average satisfaction rating receive a Top Workplace honor.

AmTrust is proud to receive this honor and will continue striving to be a top insurance company to both work for, and for our agents to work with.
